HONOR ONE ANOTHER

“Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another” (Romans 12:10).

“Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men”

(Romans 12:9-18).

THANKFUL FOR ALL

Oh, be thankful, truly thankful,
For your blessings from above;
For the precious heavenly Father
Sends them down to you in love.

Think of home and food and clothing,
You enjoy each passing day;
Of the rain and glowing sunshine
And the friends with whom you play.

But be thankful, dearest children,
Most of all, that you belong
(If you do) to Jesus' saved ones,
Who make up the happy throng
That shall meet Him at His coming,
Praising Him in joyful song.

Bible Lesson—Joshua 1:1-6; 11:16-19, 21-23

Joshua might have been scared when God told him he would be the next leader of the Israelites. Our picture shows Joshua preparing for a battle. What is he doing? Joshua is not sharpening his sword. He is not polishing his shield either. Joshua is praying to God.

Joshua knew that if God gave him a job to do, God would also help him do it. He had seen how God had helped Moses lead the people. Joshua knew it would be hard, but he was not afraid. God gives courage to those who trust Him.

With God's help, Joshua and his army defeated the evil kings and their armies. When Joshua and the Israelites trusted God, He gave them the courage they needed to fight.

God rewarded His people for obeying Him. As He had promised, God gave the Israelites all the ground they walked on. Their land was huge! God always keeps His promises.
