“Bless the Lord, O my soul:
and all that is within me, bless his holy name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits:
Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
who healeth all thy diseases;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;
who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and
tender mercies;
Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things;
so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle’s” (Psalm 103:1-5).

True in Little Things

If in little things we're true
God will bless in all we do.
Though He lives way up on high,
Not a thing will pass His eye.

In the time to come, you see,
We shall then rewarded be.
Faithfulness in little tasks
Is just what the Father asks.

Then however small they look,
God will write them in His book.
When the books are opened wide
He their greatness will not hide.

Bible Lesson—Daniel 1:8-21

Daniel and his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah had been taken captive to a faraway land. Even though they were far from home and their families, they wanted to keep following God's rules. If they ate the food that the king of Babylon had commanded them to eat, then they would have been breaking God's rules. Our picture shows Daniel asking the man who cared for them, Melzar, to bring them only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Melzar agreed to the change for ten days. If the four looked sick after the ten days, then he would stop, and they would have to eat what the king had commanded they eat.

God was pleased with the choice Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah made. After the ten days were over, they looked more healthy than all the others who ate the king's food. Melzar agreed that they would not have to eat the food from the king that would break God's rules.
