“Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you”

(Luke 12:27-31).

HOW MUCH MORE SHOULD WE!

Now the birds begin their singing,
As they through the trees go winging;
How they cheer us as they flitter
Round about and twitter, twitter!

If the birdies flying, hopping,
Sing with almost never stopping,
Should not we our voice be raising
Unto God in ceaseless praising?

Let us praise Him then forever;
Stop it never, never, never;
For if little creatures flying
Praise Him without even trying,
How much more should we adore Him,
As we worship here before Him!

Bible Lesson—Jude 1:1-13

Jude wrote a letter to his friends in a different church. They were having a hard time with people who were lying about Jesus. Jude wanted to help his friends follow the true teachings of Jesus, and he wanted them to be doing things that show others God's love.

In our picture, we see a group of Christians praying. That was one way Jude's friends could do what Jesus wanted them to do.

Jude also wanted his friends to be kind to those who had broken God's rules and were sorry about it. He wanted his friends to help those who were sorry to do better with following God's rules.

Jude also told his friends how happy God was when they did the things Jesus taught them to do. Jude wanted his friends to understand that God wanted to help them obey Jesus' teachings.

Jude finished his letter by giving praise to God for His wisdom and power. God deserves all our praise and worship too!
